"I'm not in it for the money. I like music. I love to write music. I can't imagine myself not playing or singing or writing. It would just drive me crazy if I didn't."

- Paul Simon

Always wanted to learn how to sing like your favourite pop star but never had the courage to pursue your dream?

Do you feel that you have always had the talent but never had the the training to take your vocal prowess to the next level?

Let UIZO's vocal coaches guide you with our Singing lessons. We can help you expand your vocal range without damaging your vocal chords, develop a consistent sound that's unique to you by showing you the best-practices for improving and maintaining your singing voice.

Take your first step into singing and get started on an enjoyable lifelong hobby. The basic class will introduce you to the various types of vocal registers that you have and how to tap into each one to achieve the results you want. It will also show you how to blend your registers together to form a consistent singing voice. With plenty of practice, you will soon be on your way to belting out those melodies effortlessly!

Classes are scheduled on Sundays, at 4:15pm - 5:15pm.
